Not Three More Gangster Suspects Alleged Murderers Lynched by Unknown Mob, Finding of Jury

Harding Considers Such a Move.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 10.—James Dale, Neal Lynch and others, who are believed by the police to be members of the notorious gang of San Francisco, were arrested here this evening. Dale and Lynch were heavily armed and admitted that they were in the recent outrages against young women there. The police said the men were crouched behind an automobile on a main street when arrested. Dale and Lynch also answer descriptions of four men who robbed a local man of his automobile on Thursday evening, the officers said.

EMBARGO ON GUN EXPORTS IS RELAXED.

And Shotguns May Be Shipped Into Mexico Territory.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—In a move toward relaxing the embargo on gun exports to Mexico, the State Department today announced that shotguns and small arms may be shipped into Mexico territory. The move was made in response to a request from the Mexican government, which had been pressing for a relaxation of the embargo since the outbreak of the revolution in 1913. The State Department said that the new rule would apply to shotguns and small arms, but that the embargo on the export of machine guns and other heavy weapons would remain in effect.

WINDING GALE POUNDS WASHINGTON COAST.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 10.—A gale, accompanied by heavy rain, was blowing from the coast tonight. The wind was from the northwest and the rain was falling in torrents. The gale was the result of a low pressure system moving up the coast from the south.

WHAT DEMOCRATIC THIRST.

Fifty-one Barrels of Whisky and Gin Barely Enough to Quench It.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—Fifty-one barrels of liquor, which defense attorneys said amounted to about a quart for each of the 100,000 people in the city, was seized today in the trial of Harry Brodsky, Douglas Newton and others charged with a liquor conspiracy charge. The liquor was found in a warehouse owned by Brodsky and Newton. The defense attorneys said that the amount of liquor was barely enough to quench the thirst of the city's population.

WILL MEET COOLIDGE.

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—A conference between President-elect Harding and Gov. Coolidge, Vice-President-elect, was held here today. The two men discussed the transition of power and the future of the country. Harding said that he was confident that the country would prosper under his administration.

Harding Considers Such a Move. Premier Proclaims Time of Prohibition Cut One Year.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—President-elect Harding today considered the possibility of a move to relax the embargo on gun exports to Mexico. The move was made in response to a request from the Mexican government, which had been pressing for a relaxation of the embargo since the outbreak of the revolution in 1913. The State Department said that the new rule would apply to shotguns and small arms, but that the embargo on the export of machine guns and other heavy weapons would remain in effect.

ITALIAN DESTROYER JOINS D'ANNUNZIO.

ROME, Dec. 9.—The destruction of another destroyer, the Espero, to the D'Annunzio command, has caused deep feeling of regret here. The fear is expressed that as such actions continue, the peace of the Adriatic will be endangered.

COL HARVEY ARRIVES.

While the two were closeted together, Col. George Harvey appeared on the scene for a visit. It was said, might last for several days. It was the second time he had come here at an hour when questions affecting the country's international relations were awaiting solution.

ARMENIA'S BORDERS SET.

President Wilson's Decisions Laid Before French Foreign Office.

PARIS, Dec. 10.—President Wilson's decision concerning the Armenian boundaries was delivered to the French Foreign Office yesterday through the American Embassy. It consists of a long note printed in book form. It is signed by President Wilson himself and is accompanied by a thick book of maps. The only impression given out by the Foreign Office was that President Wilson had allowed Armenia very liberal borders.

Horace E. Dodge Passes Away at Home in Florida.

DETROIT, Dec. 10.—The death of Horace E. Dodge at his winter home in Palm Beach tonight was unexpected by his acquaintances and friends here, who had not learned of Mr. Dodge's serious illness. His health had been impaired, however, since an attack of influenza last winter. He left here several weeks ago with Mrs. Dodge, apparently in good health.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Three former members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, each of whom said he had resigned as a "protest against British misrule," and later fled Ireland in fear of attack by former comrades, presented today to the commission of the Committee of One Hundred investigating the Irish question, accounts of the operation of the British military forces in the Emerald Isle.

Each of the three, John Cadden,

John J. Tangney and Daniel F. Crownley, told of raids in which they said they had been forced to participate as members of the constabulary and of the receipt from British commanders of orders to destroy life and property.

The commission also heard details of the killing of Lord Mayor

McCurtain of Cork, from Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of Terence MacSwiney, successor to Mayor McCurtain; an eye-witness account of a military raid on a small County Clare town, from P. J. Guilfoill of Pittsburg, Pa., and a description of conditions in Ireland in September as seen by Mrs. Thomas Murphy of New York. The commission at Tangney in his story of the British military operations, characterized the black and tans as "the worst scum of the country," and added:

ween the black and tans and the Royal Irish Constabulary, for we looked upon them as below us. I finally resigned, because there was nothing left for me to do as a policeman but lead the military to their butcheries."

"As a result," he continued, "the men spend their time in only three ways: The short duty on the streets, in the canteen and in bed."

Caddan related accounts of midnight raids and burnings and declared he had seen men, women and children dragged from their beds amid showers of bullets to watch their homes burn. He said quantities of food had been de-

HUSBAND'S : BABY : NOT : HERS?

Wife Names Daughter of Prominent Man.

Mrs. F. McGrew Willis.

LADY CONWAY, the divorced wife of Jack Conway, cinema director, and said to be the daughter of a prominent man in the north, is named as co-respondent in divorce proceedings filed yesterday by Mrs. Marie S. Willis through Attorneys Philip Cohn and Samuel A. Miller.

Mrs. Willis, who is the wife of F. McGrew Willis, is young and attractive. Her complaint makes the serious allegation that a girl, named Virginia, 2 years old, has been born to her husband and Mrs. Conway.

Mrs. Willis married Mr. Willis in Idaho in 1916. The separation occurred Nov. 15, 1919.

The complaint states that Mrs. Willis has been living with Mrs. Conway and is guilty of misconduct during the years 1918, 1919 and the present year, at 4285 West First street.

On information and belief, Mrs. Willis charges that the girl, Virginia, is the result of their infatuation.

WIDOW WINS MASTERY OF BIG ESTATE.

Proves Disputed Wedding by Witness; Will Ask Order for Distribution to Herself.

Mrs. Grace A. Madden Cohn, who asked for letters of administration on the $60,000 estate of Isaac Cohn on the ground that she was his widow, won her contention after a legal fight in Judge York's court yesterday. She proved by a witness that she had married Mr. Cohn in San Francisco two days before the great fire and earthquake.

Mr. Cohn was known as the head of the Big-Four Tutors corporation. He met Mrs. Cohn in this city and they went to San Francisco to be married.

Mrs. Cohn is prominently connected. Her great grandfather was Sir John Madden; her uncle was Jerry Madden, general land agent for the Southern Pacific, and Brig. Gen. John F. Madden, who was with Gen. Pershing in France, is her cousin.

An administrator of the estate Mrs. Cohn will ask that if he distributed to her. She was opposed in court by Mr. Cohn's brother, Jake Cohn, who declared she was not the widow. She was represented by Attorney Hanlon.

WILL WED TUESDAY.

Silverwood Leaves Tonight for North to Arrange for Ceremony.

F. B. Silverwood, one of Los Angeles leading merchants, and Miss Hattie Winslow will be married at San Francisco next Tuesday. Such was the announcement made yesterday by "Daddy" Silverwood, who will leave tonight for the Bay City to complete arrangements for the event. On the 15th inst. the couple will embark for a trip to Honolulu, where they will remain until February 3.

Mr. Silverwood is the head of one of the largest men's furnishing stores in the West, is widely known as the author of "I Love You, California" and is a nationally prominent shriner.

YOUNG LOVE UNSTABLE.

Boy and Girl Marriage Dissolved by Court After Three Years.

The end of a boy and girl romance came in Judge Taff's court yesterday when Sylvia Ida Evans was granted a divorce from George J. Evans. She stated she was 16 years old when she married Mr. Evans being about the same age. They lived together from June 15, 1918 until June 22, 1919.

She complained that her boy husband stayed out late at night, gambled and went with other girls. She took him back, but stated: "We only lived together under the same roof. I was sorry for him, as he had no home. I told him he could come back."

Mrs. Evans is living with her parents.

IDENTIFY AUTO VICTIM.

Woman Killed by Doctor's Car Thursday Has Nephew Here.

The aged woman killed Thursday night when struck by a motor car driven by Dr. Edward G. Eisen of 2828 South Figueroa street, was identified yesterday as Miss Louise Jane Lambert of 1923 Santee street, aunt of Jack L. Thornton, a local automobile man. Miss Lambert walked directly in front of the machine, according to Dr. Eisen, in spite of a warning signal.

MRS. HUBBELL UPON ROAD TO RECOVERY.

The condition of Mrs. R. C. Hubbell, who is the wife of former Judge Hubbell, and who suffered a fracture of the skull in a street car accident last Tuesday, was reported yesterday as improving. Mrs. Hubbell, who is 78 years old, is at the California Hospital, where her physicians stated she was resting quietly and was on the road to recovery.

JURY INDICTS FIVE.

Five secret indictments were returned by the Federal grand jury last evening, involving violations of the passport, the coast and the prohibition laws. The offenses are not grave, nor are the defendants prominent, it is said.

SEAL SALES GO ON UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

CITY RAISES ITS QUOTA OF FIFTY THOUSAND TO HELP TUBERCULAR WORK.

Though the Christmas seal sale of the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association officially closed last night, the campaign committee announces that the sale of seals will be continued in downtown stores until Christmas Day.

Mrs. J. M. Dandinger, chairman of the finance committee, stated at the close of the drive that when all the returns come in they will show that the city has raised its quota of $50,000 to carry on the local tuberculosis work for the coming year.

The volunteer workers were aided yesterday by 800 boys from the Woodcraft League, who with the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. conducted house-to-house canvasses in residential districts.

The Salvation Army ladies, who sold seals all day Thursday, reported that their efforts added $18,000 to the cause.

To lay the doubts of a small percentage of the citizens, who may think that the expenses of the Christmas seal campaign are too large, Miss Sidney M. Maguire, secretary, stated last night that the total overhead expense will not exceed 9 per cent.

"If every dollar received in the sale of the seal," said Miss Maguire, "91 cents is used in combating tuberculosis. We conducted a gigantic advertising campaign, but the space on the billboards, in the street corners and in the newspapers was all donated. Fifty billboards were given to us to advertise the seal and all our posters and most of our literature was given us by the State association. The greatest expense that we have had amounted to $1500, which was used for postage on 75,000 envelopes which we sent out. Our office force is very small, and consists mostly of volunteers. The only salaried person included in our overhead is a stenographer, who works for a very small salary."

WANTS STRIKE DAMAGES.

Glass Company Sues Association of Workers for Suspension.

The Torrance Window Glass Company, which declares it has been damaged to the extent of $10,000 by the acts of the National Window Glass Workers' Association in persuading workers to remain away from the plant pending an adjustment between the company and the workers, filed suit against the association and its officers yesterday. Besides damages, the amount demanded not being specified, an injunction is asked to restrain the defendants from interfering with the operation of the plant.

The association officers named as defendants are Charles C. Martin, William Williams and Jacob Slavin. The company blames the activities of the defendants for the enforced closing of the plant.

WANTS LOOK AT BOOKS.

Oil Company Stockholder Asks for Court Order for Privilege.

J. Allan Munro, who owns ten shares of stock of the Union Oil Company, declares he demanded an opportunity to inspect the stock and transfer books of the company and also to make a list of the stockholders and was refused. Yesterday he filed suit for a writ of mandamus, compelling the corporation and John McPeak, the secretary, to accord him permission to make this examination.

TURN DAY TO NIGHT.

The marriage of August Knight to June Day might be called an event of the season. Maybe we can look for a little Fourth of July along about September.

ON THE SPOT.

President Obregon says that he will warmly welcome American brains into Mexico. He did that very thing when the crowd from Los Angeles lined up in front of him on his inauguration day.

LONDON BRIDGE.

When an imperial potentate falls off an elephant it is about the same as an exploded ruler skidding from the hurricane deck of a water wagon. In neither case is there any deflection from the Republican party.

THE OPEN DOOR.

Bulgaria has been unanimously recommended for membership in the League of Nations. She seems to have made better time in getting her house in order than did Uncle Sam. Perhaps Bulgaria can furnish the buttermilk for the League.

EAST MARKS.

It is said that the Germans have sent over 100,000,000 marks to the Kaiser since his retirement to Holland. These must be the easy marks of which we used to hear. No wonder the mark has so sadly slipped in value. Look who it has had to associate with! It is about time that France and England made protest.

HEAVENLY TWINS.

Both parties appear to be anxious about taking the tax of oil of cream. The stuff is now listed as a necessary luxury and has friends everywhere. Presently we will have a huge statue of Columbus holding aloft a massive ice cream cone as a companion piece to the Liberty who enlightens the world from her rocky pedestal in New York Harbor.

REST ASSURED.

American life insurance companies carry more insurance on American lives than is carried by all other corporations in all other countries of the world combined. From the insurance man's standpoint the American is the best protected man in the world. That is what gives him so much assurance when he gets off the boat in Europe. Even in his sleep he rests assured.

THE EMBLEM.

The American Legion objects to the use of the national flag for advertising. So do the rest of us, for that matter, and we don't care what the size of the doll is either. The American flag has its own definite purpose, its mission, its destiny, and neither commercialism nor a deflated sentiment should permit any departure therefrom. The American flag is to be looked upon and up, but is not to be used in mere window washing or merchandising.

THE BEAUTY MART.

What business has Chicago in monkeying with a beauty fair? Such a piquant enterprise belongs to the city of orange blossoms. The idea is to present under one roof all the aids and devices for adorning beauty. It is a mixture of the fashion show and the festival of perfumes. The milliners and the modistes are there. Likewise the complexion doctors, the hair dressers and the cosmeticians. It is a living picture of beautiful women and all the aids and devices for marshaling that beauty to its fullest power. But why waste it on Chicago? Why not Hollywood? Here in Los Angeles is the proper setting for a beauty show that would throw America into transports of delight. There are women here who, when it comes to adorning beauty, can take a tube of rouge and make a Titian bluish in embarrassment. The field of the oil of gold lies in the sunny approach to Beverly Hills. If a palace of pulchritude is to be established it should by all means be in Los Angeles. Eventually, why not now?

ARE WE SENSIBLE?

The British do not take kindly toward the American honors and activities on behalf of the self-styled President of a non-existent Irish republic. But Parliament is not going to be petulant about it. There was a proposition for a diplomatic reminder to this country that the bailing of De Valera as ruler of Ireland and the conferring upon him of the freedom of cities could be considered as an "unfriendly act." Andrew Bonar Law conceded that the government had the right to take this diplomatic step, but he declared it inexpedient and no attempt was made to press it. Mr. Law added: "Undoubtedly an extensive campaign is being conducted in America against this country, but thus far we have discovered that the Americans can be trusted to consider the question from a sensible and reasonable viewpoint."

THE BRITISH STATESMAN almost flatters us.

Are we always reasonable and sensible? The funny thing is that the persons who are most eagerly demanding that America interfere with British affairs and recognize an independent Irish republic are the same ones who warn us against entangling alliances and who insist that we keep our hands out of any League of Nations. Seems as if it would be a hard job for the jury to find them reasonable and sensible. Possibly a Sinn Fein "patriot" is not expected to be.

TRADE POSSIBILITIES WITH OUR SOUTHERN NEIGHBORS.

For the first time in years political conditions in Mexico are such as to warrant the hope that a fair measure of stability may be looked for in the near future. This condition should be hailed with considerable satisfaction in the United States as it augurs well for a rapid and profitable expansion of trade between the two countries. This expansion is already reflected in the trade reports showing the commerce between the United States and Mexico.

The republic of Mexico, with an area of one-fourth that of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, and a population of 15,500,000, or approximately one-seventh of that of the United States, is a storehouse of almost unlimited natural resources. A fair start in the development of these resources, which include petroleum, copper, gold, silver, timber and a wide variety of agricultural products, may be assumed when we consider that at the present time the republic has 14,000 miles of railroads, 60,000 miles of telegraph wires and a magnificent stretch of shore line fronting on the Pacific Ocean, the Gulf of California and the Gulf of Mexico, a condition which offers future development in port facilities with vast possibilities of an overseas commerce.

Mexico's petroleum resources have been scarcely touched; her mineral deposits are still for the most part undeveloped; her vast timber reaches are still in their virgin state. With the advent of peace and settled conditions we may look forward to a steady growth in the purchasing power of her population and with this increased purchasing power will come a vast expansion of her wealth and of our trade—for we of the United States are in an exceptionally advantageous position to control that trade.

In spite of the fact that the country has been torn with internal strife for the past decade the foreign trade of Mexico has steadily advanced in both volume and value. The figures for 1910 show that the foreign commerce of Mexico, which means goods exported and imported, amounted to $219,000,000. The figures for 1929 are not as yet available, but those for 1919 passed the $300,000,000 mark, exclusive of precious metals (gold and silver) and of this $300,000,000 the bulk was with the United States, the total being $250,000,000. The United States imported from Mexico in 1919, according to the statistician of the National City Bank of New York, silver to the value of $52,000,000, while the figures for 1919 reached a total of $51,000,000.

Mexico's export of mineral oil in 1919 amounted to $50,000,000, of which amount the United States alone imported $25,000,000. This gives a fair idea of the trade relations that exist in this one product alone. We also imported sisal (a substitute for hemp) valued at $55,000,000 in 1918, while the value of the coffee imported from Mexico reached $5,000,000 and hides $10,000,000 in 1919.

That the merchants of Los Angeles shared heavily in this volume of commerce with Mexico is shown by our local reports and that the trade with Mexico is rapidly growing is a source of great satisfaction.

There is, however, another conspicuous field for the expansion of the commerce of Los Angeles. That is in the countries facing on the Caribbean Sea. The Caribbean Sea, with its companion body of water, the Gulf of Mexico, has been called by O. P. Austin of the National City Bank, the "American Mediterranean." This sea, with its islands and the countries fronting upon it, is one of the most important trade areas in the Western Hemisphere.

Living off the islands and within the confines of the countries that border on this sea is a population of 40,000,000. This population at the present time is carrying on a foreign trade of approximately $2,000,000,000 per year. Within their borders are grown the bulk of those tropical and semi-tropical products which the United States uses in such vast quantities, and as these countries are all in a semideveloped state they constitute one of the greatest future markets for our surplus manufactures of any region on the globe, with the added advantage that, instead of being hauled round the world, they are at our very doors.

COUNTY MUST RETRENCH.

In re-electing Jonathan S. Dodge as its chairman the Board of Supervisors paid a deserved honor to a man who has served the county well. The electors in his own district showed their confidence in Mr. Dodge by sending him back for a second term with a handsome majority. His colleagues, who have had ample opportunities to judge of his merits, unanimously decided that he must continue at his head. He has shown ability and tact as a presiding officer and has placed the county's interests above everything else. In his address at the formal organization of the board for another term Mr. Dodge showed that he is keeping up with the spirit of the times, for retrenchment in every legitimate way and restoration of business to a normal basis.

The word business includes not only private but public affairs. As chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county Mr. Dodge is really the head of a great business institution employing over 3000 people and acting for nearly 1,800,000. He speaks exactly his colleagues the necessity for lessening the burden of taxation. This he believes can be done as the dollar returns to its original purchasing power. The dollar today will buy more than it could a month ago, but it is still worth only 60 cents as compared with 1913. The year the Democrats took office "to reduce the high cost of living."

NO LUNCH LAY!

The cause of justice has suffered in California by the lynching of three supposedly respectable characters in Santa Rosa by a mob whose passions were so aroused that they could not let the law take its course. The three victims were taken from cells in the County Jail, where they were awaiting arraignment on charges of murdering Sheriff Petray of Sonoma county and two San Francisco detectives. The evidence in the case was conclusive and the early conviction and hanging of the murderers was quite certain to occur. No good purpose was served by the crime committed by the lynchers, while a precedent was established which may lead to the lynching at some future time of innocent persons.

While the three who were hanged had been guilty of the worst offenses known to society, according to evidence that seems beyond dispute, yet they were entitled to a trial by jury and to the technical presumption of innocence until they were legally adjudged guilty. The guarantee is given to them alike by the Constitution of the United States and that of the State of California. Those who took part in the lynching were themselves guilty of the crime of murder, under the law. They permitted their passionate desire for revenge for the slain to blind them to the sense of responsibility which they owed to the community.

It is to be presumed that the lynchers were filled with indignation over the crimes which the victims had committed, alike in Santa Rosa and in San Francisco. But the murderers should have been hanged by due process of law. They were seemingly confined. There was not even a rumor that an effort would be made by their friends to enable them to escape. Plans were already under way for a speedy trial, and the black masks intervened, not in the cause of justice, but of mob law, which is closely akin to anarchy.

It now the duty of the officers of the law who would have conducted the case against three lynchers to hunt down the lynchers and bring them to trial for the commission of murder. In the capture of the ruffians who slew the Sheriff and the detectives of Santa Rosa performed a meritorious and courageous feat. But by taking them from jail and lynching them they turned a virtuous action into a serious offense. Justice has no need of mobs to enforce its decrees. Lynching is a survival of the cave-man era when the only right was that of the strongest. If lynching is right, then the whole government of our country is wrong.

SAVING A BILLION.

Few words in the English language have been more commonly abused and misapplied in their governmental relation in recent years than economy. Tammany Hall has always boasted that it gives to the city of New York an economical administration. The cost of government in California has increased more than 300 per cent under the "Progressive" banner of economy. Former Gov. Johnson was complimented by a subsequent Legislature on his record for economy in State administration at the conclusion of a two-year period in which his expenditure had been $100,000,000. Gov. Stephens pledged himself to an economical administration and then signed bills adding $15,000,000 to the cost of the State government.

And now comes Secretary Houston recommending to Congress the "strictest economy" in the operation of the Federal government and accompanying that recommendation with a tentative budget the adoption of which would mean the sheer waste of more than $1,000,000,000 during the next twelve months.

Chairman Fordney of the House Ways and Means Committee has looked over the estimates of government expense in the report of the Secretary of the Treasury and says bluntly that they are "ridiculously high." The Times regards that attitude of the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee as the first indication in eight years of a genuine movement for retrenchment. Mr. Fordney is one of the Republican veterans in the lower house. He has had varied experience in finance and industry outside Congress; inside he has been a member of the Ways and Means Committee for several terms. As a member of the opposition his protest against Democratic extravagance was unfailingly registered when annual appropriations were made. He has been the bete noire of the "deserving Democrats" through two successive administrations and, as the Republican party returns to power in all branches of the Federal government, his recommendations for retrenchments are likely to be reflected in Federal enactments.

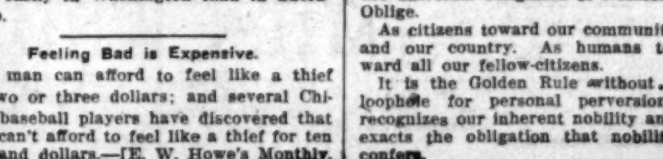

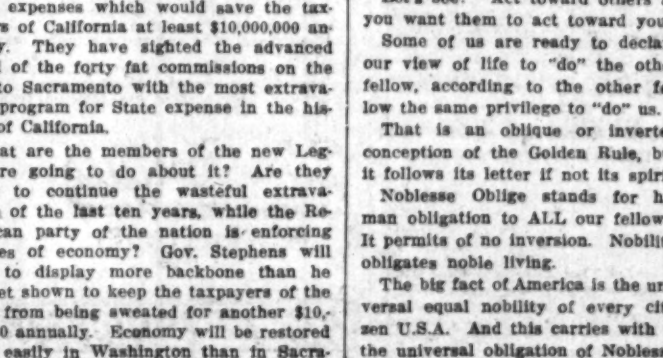

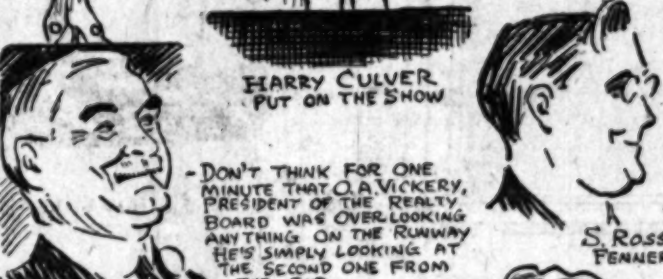

Congressman Fordney's attitude in relation to government expense is an earnest that there will be no Republican barrel next year. For the retrenchment which he advocates means the abolishment of many thousands of departmental agencies and a restriction of appropriations to strictly essential projects. Many things which the government is now doing are being discontinued so far as Federal action is concerned, but they will be maintained by private industry. One of the first policies of the new administration, if its pledges are fulfilled, will be to keep politics out of business. There will be less governmental supervision, inspection and control, less duplication of State and Federal activities. These things will lead to real economy. The Republican ax will have to cut deep to effect a saving of $1,000,000,000 a year. There will probably be a great hue and cry that the reforms of the Wilson administration are being abandoned; but the people as a whole are not likely to be seriously disturbed by such clamor, so long as the Federal government is being saved of a tax burden of more than $1,000,000,000 a year.

Just where the savings will be made that will bring that reduction in the cost of the Federal government it would be difficult to specify at this time. But Congressman Fordney has had ample experience in handling Federal appropriations and he may be regarded as speaking with authority. While the civil service will be protected, the "swivel service" is likely to be hit hard. It is estimated that more than 100,000 departmental positions will be eliminated in Washington alone. The quadruplication of departmental service, against which Mr. Lane protested when he was elected in 1913, is a virtue to make two blades of grass grow where but one grew before, the same

How is business? "Flourishing," said the card-writer. "Good," said the preacher. "Bad," said the clerk. "Picking up," said the taxman. "Going to pieces," said the dynamiter. "Rotting," said the garbage man. "Up in the air," said the aeronaut. "Back to normalcy," said the pedagogic student.

Once Was Enough. Some one asked my Cousin Anne if she wouldn't like to live her life over again, and Anne said no, she had just said the last installment on her player piano.

"Samuel Johnson," said my friend who teaches in high school, the other day, "when walking the streets of London with a friend would insist on touching the wall of each building he passed. What do we call a man like that?" "I should call him a walnut," said Harold Verdigria.

Popular Science Jottings. Why do married people outlive single ones? They don't. How is it two can live as cheaply as one? They can't. Why does one weigh no more after eating a hearty meal than before? He does weigh more. How does one gifted with second sight read questions through a sealed envelope? He doesn't. Why does a vessel of water weigh the same after a fish is dropped in it as it did before? It doesn't.

What's in a name? H. Ruben owns a farm near Jasper, Mo. What Would You Do? It's rather a hard problem to decide. You'll say so. You'd say so with double emphasis if you knew my wife. I have to tell her about the sweet-toe seed because it will make her feel like a fool. I have to think of her boosting a worthless preparation the rest of her life. My wife is subject to spells of acute indigestion. Last spring a friend recommended "Bine's Black Beauties" to her. A bottle costs two dollars. It is not a very large bottle. At that. You take two of the little pellets before each meal. My wife tried them ten days and then sent them out. Said she never cared to see them again.

Shortly afterward I was hunting for something to store my sweet pea seed in. I found them in "Black Beauties" bottle. I dumped the contents into the sink and substituted the sweet peas. I failed to tell my wife what I had done. The other day when I came back from a four weeks' hunting trip I found that my wife had had another spell of indigestion and had tackled the bottle with the Bine label. And it cured her. And her mother came down on a visit and had a touch of indigestion. Out came the bottle and mother was cured. And the neighbor next door gave a supper and served spiced olives and twenty-four people collapsed at the table and my wife ran over and got her precious bottle and served the gasping guests with sweet peas and when the doctor arrived on the scene all were recovered.

And a representative of Bing came down and got a lot of testimonials from the towns and a picture of my wife to run in Bing ads from Maine to Kamchatka. The sweet-pea seeds are gone. I don't like to lose them, for they are a very rare variety. But that is nothing to the anguish I feel when I think of allowing my dear wife to go on deceiving herself and her neighbors. And I am honestly afraid to tell her the truth.

THRELL FALL. Possibly. A coal porter summoned for income tax at West Ham Police Court said that his tax was £4000 a year. We think it only fair to say that there must be laboring men here and there who earn even less than that.—London Punch.

ROB JEWELRY STORE

WHILE OWNER DINES.

SKYLIGHT BURGLARS DECAPITATED WITH RICH LOOT FROM HOLLYWOOD.

Daring skylight burglars ransacked the McClinck store at 6714 Hollywood Boulevard yesterday evening while the proprietor and his wife were at supper, and escaped with jewelry valued at $1000.

The thieves climbed to the roof of a low building adjoining the jewelry store and from there to the skylight, they lowered a rope in the floor of the jewelry store. They took only the jewelry on display in the windows and then fled out the back door.

Mr. and Mrs. McClinck, who live at the El Rincon Apartments, returned from dinner after an absence of less than an hour, and discovered the robbery. The police officers found that the rope was a piece of new, half-inch rope which a Hollywood store owner identified as having been sold by him yesterday to two men. He gave the police a good description of the suspects.

FOR CONSPIRACY.

Three Are Arrested and Held in Default of $2000 Bail Each.

H. F. Libby, C. B. Tibbels and Harold Stewart were arrested last night on a charge of conspiracy following a complaint sworn to by J. C. Clark before Justice Thomas, who is sitting for Justice Brown. The alleged conspirators were held in the County Jail for $2000 bail each. The complaint did not state the particulars of the asserted conspiracy.

Theater Man's Bride Charges Quick Cruelty.

Herman Gore, who owns an interest in a number of theaters, was made defendant yesterday in a suit for separate maintenance by Ruth de Rita Gore, his bride of less than a month. She declares he earns $110 a week as manager for the Optic and Regent theaters; also that he has an interest in the new Ambassador Theater, being built in Hollywood, and the Liberty, Lyceum, Kinema and Alhambra theaters.

The complaint charges desertion and failure to provide. The couple were married November 14 last, and the desertion is stated to have occurred on the 2nd inst.

INJURY AT SEA FATAL.

Glendale Clergyman Dies Two Years after Accident on Ship.

After an illness of two years, dating from an injury received on shipboard, while en route to Honolulu, Rev. David R. Dugan died at his home, 309 East Lomita street, Glendale, at 9 o'clock last night.

Mr. Dugan, who was 55 years of age, had been a resident of Glendale for nine years, coming to that city from Des Moines, Iowa, where, for a number of years, he was president of Drake University. He leaves a widow and one son, David, who is minister of the Christian Church of San Bernardino. The dead man had been a clergyman in the Christian Church since his early manhood. No funeral arrangements have been announced.

$100 Sincerity Pledge

Have your physical ailments proven a puzzle to your best advisers? If so, this message is meant for you and to all others who appreciate definite knowledge of the cause of ill health. The secret of your impaired health lies within the spinal column. You know, by common knowledge, that the nerves control and maintain every function of the body. These nerves pass out in pairs through the openings between each vertebra of the spine. The vital question is, can a joint of the spine become misplaced sufficiently far enough to impinge the nerves? Let an X-Ray picture answer this question. You may thus examine your own spine. Seeing is knowing.

"Nerve pressure," a product of a spinal misplacement, is the direct cause of 95 per cent of human ailments. If you suffer there is a misplacement in your spine. To prove that my contention is correct an X-Ray picture will be taken, reproducing the spine. If this picture proves incorrect, that a misplacement is not present, a Sincerity Pledge of $100.00 will be given. This offer is to any man, woman or child who suffers and wants to get well.

Make your appointment today. Examination and consultation free. X-Ray and Fluoroscopic Laboratory.

LILLIAN GISH TO WED.

WILL MARRY LEADING MAN.

JAMES RENNIE, REPORT.

By Grace Kingsley.

From New York comes the word that Lillian Gish is engaged to marry. No matter who the man might be, this news would be of thrilling interest to her hosts of friends and admirers in the West.

But when it is also announced that the man to whom she is engaged is a Broadway star, as well as a picture player of prominence, the interest is heightened to what the police reporters refer to as fever heat.

Miss Gish's fiancé, according to the report, published in the late edition of The Times yesterday, is no less a person than James Rennie, who has one of the leading roles in Avery Hopwood's new play, "Booth

Love," which is creating a furore in

New York.

Mr. Rennie is evidently an energetic young man, as he is also playing the lead opposite Miss Gish in the first picture being made for the Frohman Amusement Company.

The wedding is reported to be fixed for a fortnight away.

Special interest attaches to Miss

Gish's engagement locally at the present time, due to the fact that so many people are going to see

Griffith's "Way Down East."

At one time Mr. Rennie was very attentive to Dorothy Gish, Lillian's sister, but it seems that after Miss

Dorothy went abroad, the young man found Lillian's society so pleasing that he has paid court ever since.

Jennie Lind a Film.

The romantic life of Jenny Lind, the Swedish nightingale, is to be made for the screen in California, according to telegraphic reports from

Harry Leonhardt, now in New York.

Mr. Leonhardt has just completed his supervision of the production of "The Devil," directed by

James Young, with George Arlino

The production is to be supervised by the Jenny Lind Photoplay Corporawhich Mr. Leonhardt is president.

Persons seeing any of these machines are requested to report the matter to Ervin, Hickok or head of the Auto Club their bureau or to police officials.

Landis to Push Charges in the Ball Scandal.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Judge E. H. Landis, supreme head of baseball, will have full authority to file a bill of the gambling evil, according to statements made here following his conference with Ban Johnson, president of the American League. Both men agreed the case against the indicted players should be pushed to the limit.

President Johnson today announced the date of the annual American League meeting as December 12 in New York, due to the gathering of the drafting committee. The "what if" question of certain rules are scheduled for discussion.

The National League meeting is set for December 14 in New York.

TO KEEP CAPLAN IN JAIL.

Powerful Appeal by Woolwine Against Parole of "Times" Dynamiter.

As a letter to the State Board of Prison Directors, Dist. Atty. Woolwine yesterday urged that not to grant parole to David Caplan, convicted of murdering his part in the shooting at the Times Building on April 1, 1918. Eighteen indictments were returned against Caplan on the grounds that he was not brought to trial within the statutory limit of sixty days. On yesterday, the 8th of December, 1919, Judge Frank R. Willis ruled with Caplan and dismissed such charges. This motion was made with the avowed purpose of clearing the calendar of all remaining charges so that Caplan might apply to your board for parole.

You will no doubt recall that the destruction of the Times Building, and the cruel and heartless killing of this score of human beings, was the culmination of what is known as the nation's comic conspiracy. Caplan himself assisted in the purchase and transportation of 500 pounds of nitroglycerine, which he and his companions stored in San Francisco preparatory to the carrying out of a reign of terror, and a portion of which was used in the destruction of the building and in the murders mentioned.

To my mind there was not a man implicated in this unprecedented outrage who should not have been hanged and how the jury arrived at its conclusion to find Caplan guilty of manslaughter only is a mystery to me. This decision must have been what is known as a compromise verdict. Matthew A. Schmidt, one of the other conspirators prosecuted by me, is now serving a life term.

It is my opinion that it would be a serious mistake and an injustice to the public to parole this anarchist and murderer, for if he serves his full term his punishment could not possibly be commensurate with his infamous crime.

I am against his parole for the further reason that his release at this time would be an encouragement to the many traitors and anarchists who are so winelike.

Oakley A. Pappan, who was remanded to the County Jail by Judge Shink yesterday in default of $1000 bonds, on the ground that he had threatened to leave the jurisdiction of the courts, has three suits pending against him.

His wife, Marguerite Pappan, is seeking separate maintenance, and couples his name with that of Mrs. Cora Hewitt.

Through Attorney Edgar L. Martin it is emphatically stated by the wife that she has not become reconciled with Mr. Pappan. Until recently they have been living in the same apartment, and Mrs. Pappan has asked her lawyer to obtain an order prohibiting Mr. Pappan from coming there.

Mrs. Pappan was in Judge Shink's court yesterday when witness testified that Mr. Pappan was preparing to leave the State. R. S. Hewitt, who has sued Mr. Pappan for $50,000 damages for stealing the love and affection of his wife, testified that Mr. Pappan told him he was going away.

Mr. Pappan, who is a member of the Onaga Indian tribe and receives an income from oil leases of $1000 a month, did not deny this, but stated he would not go until he had cleaned up his holdings. The third suit, and upon which he was arrested on the order of Presiding Judge Jackson, was filed by H. J. Brown for the collection on a promissory note given by Mr. Pappan for $1214.65.

CITIZENS FROM TEN LANDS. Sixteen aliens were admitted to American citizenship yesterday by U. S. District Judge Trippet. ## Prohibition Agent Spills Plans of Men in Long Line of Automobiles.

D. J. O'Leary, prohibition enforcement agent, made a raid yesterday on the home of Peter Albano at 2117 East Sixteenth street and confiscated enough whisky, wine and jackass brandy to stock a saloon. This is the third time that Albano has been in the law's clutches for violating the national prohibition law.

Among the wet goods seized were fifteen fifty-gallon barrels of wine, two twenty-five-gallon kegs of wine, a number of gallons of whisky and some brandy.

When the officers made their descent upon the place there was a line of automobiles waiting along the curb for their drivers and occupants to be served. In addition to the spirits more than 1000 empty bottles were taken.

Oscar A. Bowers, on Trial for Murder, Closes Defense Testimony.

With the testimony of Oscar A. Bowers, on trial in Judge Willis' court on a charge of murdering McCullough G. Graydon, who was slain at Venice, the defense in the case rested yesterday. Dep. Dist. Atty. Van Cott began argument for the prosecution and will complete his address to the jury on Monday. He will be followed by Jud Rush, chief of defense counsel. The case will probably go to the jury on Monday.

Graydon was killed in an argument over possession of a bungalow at 18 Sherman Way, Venice, Mrs. Maybelle Roe was tried for murder, and admitted in testimony that she fired the shot, but the jury disagreed. The cases of Edward F. Doane and his wife, Mrs. Julia Doane, co-defendants, have not yet come to trial.

LINKED WITH FRUIT FRAUD.

A Variant was Issued yesterday by U. S. Commissioner Long, on a complaint of Special Agent Hall of the Department of Justice, for the arrest of Thomas G. Kennedy of San Bernardino, vice-president of the Sutherland Fruit Company, lately thrown into bankruptcy in this city, on the charge of defrauding the government in the matter of fraudulent bills of lading, purporting to represent large shipments of oranges over the Santa Fe, Salt Lake and Southern Pacific railroads, during the latter part of 1919.

The allegations in the complaint are similar to those in the charge against the president of the corporation, William F. McShane of Pasadena, who is now under indictment by the Federal grand jury, and whose trial was set for last Tuesday in the local Federal Court but was postponed on account of the fact that the arrest of Kennedy was impending. The linking up of Kennedy in the wholesale charges of fraud has been but recently accomplished by Special Agent Hall.

It was shown, following the arrest of McShane, that he had secured from the People's Trust and Savings Bank of Riverside about $211,000 in cash through "kiting" the phony bills of lading, and Federal officers now charge that Kennedy is jointly responsible. Soon after the trouble the principal owners of the Riverside bank made up the loss, and the bank was afterward sold to financial interests in Los Angeles.

Jessie Barton Tent, No. 4, Daughters of Veterans, will elect officers for 1921 at its meeting Monday night in Patriotic Hall. Refreshments will be served.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Considering Beans; Stocks Soon to Turn Upward; Oil Earnings.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

In a community where so many persons are dependent upon beans for their daily bread the market for the commodity is always a source of concern.

Since the government withdrew from its position as buyer, after the war, the grower's path has not been strewn with character. The grower has been forced to borrow money to plant a fresh crop and thrown the burden upon the consumer.

That this law will soon manifest itself is foreseen by the current California Bean Growers' Journal, which says indications of a stronger demand for beans after the first of the year, which should advance the price of beans.

The volume of business for the past month in California has been only nominal and at prices that do not give the grower the cost of production. A comparative table shows that 1920 production will be the lightest in five years and only about half of the year 1918, when 10,438,000 bushels were produced in the United States.

In 1917, the year when the grower was $10.25. This year it was $12.15.

In California there is a holdover stock of approximately 800,000 bushels, containing 100 pounds each. Japanese imports also cut a big figure in the total movement, but in spite of all the circumstances, market prices in the Los Angeles bean market are at a high level.

It is a fact that the industry is in the strongest financial position today that it has been in for six years, and they are confident that bean values will increase and that farmers will within a few months realize $1 a bushel more than they are getting now.

NEW LOW FOR GOODYEAR.

Yesterday's proceedings were marked by further slumps, practically every issue traded in registering sharp declines. Goodyear preferred featured the trading, and the under the spur of the market from the morning opening until the close.

The transaction was at $23.90, 1 1/4 points under the Thursday close, and the highest point reached during the day. Several small blocks were offered and the price broke to a morning close of $23.90.

Afternoon session the hammering continued without sufficient resistance to stop the decline. The movement until the stock touched bottom at $23.90. At this figure there was a slight reaction and the final sale was at $23.90, although there was a further break of 1 point in the bidding. The final bid was $23.90, with offerings at $23.90.

News of delay in the completion of financing being developed by the parent company was probably the cause of the decline. The general chaotic condition of the time and rubber market is having an effect on the stock market.

Professing to believe that surplus stocks are being rapidly depleted and that a price recovery is imminent, a near normal producing basis may be expected soon after the first of the year. About 300 shares changed hands. Only a small block of 100 shares was offered and the week ended at $23.90.

In the oil's greatest activity was in the bidding. The final bid was $23.90, with offerings at $23.90. The oil's greatest activity was in the bidding. The final bid was $23.90, with offerings at $23.90.

It is in the face of a falling market, and even moved up a fraction of a point towards the close. The 1000-share lot brought 23 1/2 cents, associated with the 1000-share lot, and the 1000-share lot brought 23 1/2 cents.

Should take a turn for the better, and the next twenty days these stocks should take a turn for the better, and the next twenty days these stocks should take a turn for the better.

The new company will be known as the Berger, Fleming & Brown Co., and will have its main office and factories at San Jose.

TAX COMPLICATIONS.
The resolution introduced by Senator Overman providing for a postponement of the December 15th installment has the enthusiastic support of most taxpayers in Los Angeles. The new law will be better and more immediate advantage, and re-establish their tax fund through holiday receipts or first of the year liquidation.

Such a proceeding, however, will seriously curtail the revenue of the Treasury, and may necessitate the issuance of another big certificate before the end of the year. Seven hundred million in these certificates will mature on December 15, and only $300,000,000 are coming out.

Another $300,000,000 mature January 2 and he is looking to receipts to tide over these periods of heavy requirement. The readjustment is likely to have a marked effect upon the general money market, and some of the advantages derived from a postponement will be offset by the penalties involved.

BELDEN HERE.
Leo V. Belden, vice-president and manager of the bond department of the Bank of Italy, is spending a few days in Los Angeles for the purpose of increasing the efficiency of the local branch.

This department was organized early in 1920 and has grown to include $10,000,000 of government bonds of all issues were bought and sold at net prices, and during one day as many as $2,000,000 were dealt in.

Such a volume makes it possible, according to Mr. Belden, to buy or sell any amount of bonds without commission charge or market risk. The department is given authority to delay for immediate acceptance.

HAWAIIAN SUGAR.
Although the sugar plantation strikes early in the year cost the Hawaiian Islands $10,000,000, the 1919-20 crop of 654,000 tons has been moved except 13,000 tons. The crop for the coming season is estimated at 667,000 tons.
